Memorandum of Understanding

Between

College of Veterinary Medicine Al-Qasim Green University, Iraq

and

The University of Tehran, Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Iran

The College of Veterinary Medicine Al-Qasim Green University and The University of Tehran wishing to intensify the existing cooperative relations between the two institutions, especially to develop academic interchanges through mutual assistance in the areas of education and research, agree as follows:

1. Participating parties

The College of Veterinary Medicine Al-Qasim Green University and The University of Tehran, Faculty of Veterinary Medicine.

2. Area

The area of cooperation includes, subject to mutual consent, any program offered by either of the participating parties as felt desirable and feasible on either side to foster and develop the cooperative relationship between the two institutions as followed:

3. Methods

Assistance shall be carried out, subject to availability of funds and the approval of each institution through such activities or programs as:

- Scholarships awarded to Iraqi PhD students by certain Iraqi donors. The PhD student is based in Iran and employed at the University of Tehran during the PhD study, but the scholarship can include research stays at Iraqi Universities if supported by the Iraqi principal supervisor. Or a single PhD degree is awarded by the University of Tehran.

- Joint 2+2 PhD degree (2 yrs in Iran and 2 yrs in Iraq). Enrolment at University of Tehran and College of Veterinary Medicine Al-Qasim Green University.
- The financial terms for joint degrees needs to be negotiated between University of Tehran and Iraq generically and for each PhD-student. In certain cases, the PhD cost will be financed by students.
- Supporting of Education at the College of Veterinary Medicine Al-Qasim Green University through Iranian Professors.
- Joint Research Projects in Iraq and vice versa.
- Joint Organization and Performance of Symposium and Congresses.
- Short term research visits (e.g. 6-9 months) supported by Iraq.
- Exchange of individual scientists either Iraqi visiting Iran and vice versa.

The terms of such mutual assistance and necessary budget for each program and activities shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing by both parties prior to the initiation of the particular program or activity, and such program and activity shall be negotiated on a mutual basis.

4. Intellectual Property

The participating parties will disclose Background Knowledge from one to another to facilitate performance of the research and training activities of this Memorandum of Understanding.

The disposition of intellectual property created by the participating parties in performance of this Memorandum of Understanding will be guided by that University's applicable policies and the following principles:

Ownership. Intellectual Property created in performance of this Memorandum of Understanding ("Intellectual Property") shall be owned in accordance with the policies and procedures of the party/parties whose personnel created such Intellectual Property.

Right to Use. Each participating party will have a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use the other participating party's Intellectual Property (a) in performance of the Memorandum of Understanding activities, and (b) for research and teaching use. Any other use will be subject to the negotiation of a license agreement with the owners of the subject Intellectual Property.

5. Principles

Both parties assert that participants under this Memorandum of Understanding will be selected on the bases of the merit without regard to race, national or ethnic origin, color, religion, age, gender, marital status or physical ability. The University of Tehran and The University of Iraq will each accept the participants selected by the other party if mutually acceptable academic and /or professional qualifications and standards are met at the time of enrolment and during the time as employee. All participants will be treated in the same non-discriminatory manner in carrying out the provisions of this Memorandum of Understanding, subject to the provision of the policies and requirements of each of the institutions. Any violation of these Principles will be considered as grounds for terminating a specific PhD-student's employment or in the case of general violations a termination of this Memorandum of Understanding.

4. Effective Date and Length of Memorandum of Understanding

This Memorandum of Understanding will remain in force for a period of five years subject to the availability of funds, and any amendment and/or modification of the Memorandum of Understanding will require written approval of the chief administrative office of each contracting institution and shall be appended hereto.

Either party reserves the right to terminate this Memorandum of Understanding upon six months written notice to the other. In such case and during such a period the individual conditions for actively enrolled and employed PhD-students must be mutually negotiated.

This Memorandum of Understanding shall take effect when signed by each side.
